KEYNOTE Speakers 2010

Mr Max Bosshart CDT / Master Dental Technician

Max trained in Zurich, Lausanne and New York, qualifying as Master Dental Technician in 1985 in the USA and as Clinical Dental Technician in his home country, Switzerland. An international speaker, Max presents and instructs hands on courses worldwide, as well as courses in 5 dental colleges in Switzerland and MDT courses in Germany and Switzerland. His own dental lab/surgery often plays host to dental courses conducted in several languages. He is credited with many publications and has worked in collaboration with Prof A Gerber of Zurich, on his book, "TMJ and Occlusion"

Dr Gary Smith Prosthodontist

Gary Smith completed his B.D.Sc (Hons) at the University of Queensland in 1979 and his M.D.Sc in Prosthodontics (also at the University of Queensland) in 1988. He is a Prosthodontist in private practice in the Brisbane CBD but also has an appointment at the University of Queensland Dental School as the Senior Lecturer in Removable Prosthodontics. He is currently the Secretary of the Queensland Branch of the Australian Prosthodontic Society, and in 2011 will take on an appointment as the Federal Secretary of the Australian Prosthodontic Society. He is also a member of the Australian and New Zealand Academy of Prosthodontists. His main dental interests include Removable Partial Denture Design, Complete Dentures and Over-dentures, both Implant Retained and tooth supported. Gary has lectured extensively throughout Australia on many Removable Prosthodontic subjects.

Mr David Darrant Partner, Poole Group Accountants and Investment Advisers

David Darrant joined the Poole Group in 1982 and has had over 25 years of experience in the public accounting and business management environment. He has been actively involved in the establishment, management and the ultimate sale of his own and his clients businesses. Often the sale of a business and the succession planning associated with that sale is a significant retirement option for many small business clients and it is for this reason that in the past 5 years, he has become highly skilled in the Superannuation and Retirement planning sector. David has a thorough knowledge of the technical issues associated with business management and succession planning your business however he considers that he is most skilled at helping clients build wealth through their businesses. As a Partner with the Poole Group, and as a business owner, he is very aware of the issues that confront many small business operators on a day to day basis as well as the strategic issues that need to be considered as they approach the end of their working life.
